

Program for National French Week, Friday, Nov. 8, 2002

An Exhibit on France and the Francophone World will run from November 7-13 in the Lobby of Jackson-Moody Building

---

1:30 PM: Muscial opening by Dr. Aynesworth

Poetry: Dr. Peña (Professor of Spanish at HTC) will read his poetry in French

Adama Dien will read "In Memoriam" by Senegalese poet L. S. Senghor

Play: "Les légumes bariolés" by LFR 213 students Jennifer DeLoach, Berrnadette Booker and Charles Conley

Poetry: Saad Chafik & Jalal Houlim will read a poem by Moroccan poet

Tameisha Newton (LFR 113) will read
"Prière d'un petit enfant nègre" by Guy Tirolien (Guadeloupe)

Play: "La petite souris" by LFR 213 students

Bi-lingual reading of Aimé Césaire's
"Une tempête" by Dr. Oldmixon's students

3:00 PM. Guest Speaker:
Valérie Horne, Fine Arts teacher at the Lycée Français d'Austin.
Lecture on French painters who use the circus as one type of stylistic innovation

4:00 PM Reception will follow in the foyer of Jackson-Moody

Event organized by Dr. Anne V. Cirella-Urrutia and Dr. Horacio Peña

Sponsored by The Division of Liberal Studies at Huston-Tillotson College